

February 12, 1953

'Stan' Block Runs For Carnival King

Potadam, Feb. 5—Stanley Block, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Block of Maple Terrace, Monsey, is one of five Clarkson College of Technology seniors who will vie for king of the 23rd annual Clarkson-State University Teachers College ice carnival.

Block is also co-chairman of the executive committee for the ice carnival and is a member of Phalanx, the college's highest recognition society. He is well known in the area as a master of ceremonies, does pantomime acts and serves as a comedian, entertaining at many college functions.

A senior business administration student, Block also is an announcer on the staff of WNTC, campus radio station, serves on the staff of the student newspaper, and is a member of the Society for the Advancement of Management.